

Courses and Activities Approved to Satisfy the Experiential Learning Requirement for the Odum School of Ecology

Global:

BIOL 4330	Tropical Marine Invertebrates
BIOL 4330L	Tropical Marine Invertebrates
ECOL 3100	Tropical Field Ecology
ECOL 3100L	Tropical Field Ecology
ECOL 4330	Tropical Marine Invertebrates
ECOL 4330L	Tropical Marine Invertebrates
ECOL 4570	Comparative Biodiversity and Land Conservation Policy: Costa Rica and the United States
MARS 4330	Tropical Marine Invertebrates
MARS 4330L	Tropical Marine Invertebrates

Study Abroad/Field Study Courses: Students who participate in ecologically focused study abroad programs with significant field experiences can seek approval from the Experiential Learning Certification Officer. Find more information on study abroad courses <http://goabroad.uga.edu/>.

Internship:

ANTH 4261	Museum of Natural History Internship
BIOL 4261	Museum of Natural History Internship
ECOL 3050L	Apprenticeship in Ecology
ECOL 4261	Museum of Natural History Internship
ECOL 4940	Internship in Ecology
EETH 4261	Museum of Natural History Internship
ENTO 4261	Museum of Natural History Internship
FANR 4261	Museum of Natural History Internship
GEOL 4261	Museum of Natural History Internship
PATH 4261	Museum of Natural History Internship
PBIO 4261	Museum of Natural History Internship

Research:

ECOL 4960	Research
ECOL 4960H	Research (Honors)

Non-Credit Experiences Approved to Satisfy the Experiential Learning Requirement for the Odum School of Ecology

Students may fulfill the requirement through non-credit experiences, provided they are faculty-sponsored and approved in advance by the Experiential Learning Certification Officer.