

Courses and Activities Approved to Satisfy the Experiential Learning Requirement for the School of Public and International Affairs

Global:

Study Abroad/Field Study Courses: Participation in any UGA-sponsored study abroad program will fulfill the requirement for SPIA students; SPIA-sponsored programs include Maymester in China; SPIA at Oxford; and GLOBIS study abroad courses in Stellenbosch, South Africa; Asia; Verona, Italy; and Ecuador. Find more information on study abroad courses <http://goabroad.uga.edu/>.

Internship:

INTL 4415	Practicum--Methods and Issues in Security Studies
INTL 4710	United Nations Practicum
INTL 4720	International Affairs Internship
INTL 4721	International Affairs Internship Research
INTL 4722	International Affairs Internship Analytical Essays
PADP 7580	Local Government Practicum
POLS 5010	Georgia Legislative Internship
POLS 5020	Governor's Intern Program
POLS 5100	Legislative Internship
POLS 5101	Legislative Internship Research
POLS 5102	Legislative Internship Analytical Essays
POLS 5110	Lobbying Internship
POLS 5111	Lobbying Internship Research
POLS 5112	Lobbying Internship Analytical Essays
POLS 5120	Campaign Internship
POLS 5121	Campaign Internship Research
POLS 5122	Campaign Internship Analytical Essays
POLS 5130	Federal, State, or Local Government Internship
POLS 5131	Federal, State, or Local Government Internship Research
POLS 5132	Federal, State, or Local Government Internship Analytical Essays
POLS 5140	Survey Research Internship

Research:

HONS 4960H	Honors Undergraduate Research
INTL 4425	Advanced Research in International Security Policy
INTL 4990H	Honors Thesis
POLS 4990H	Honors Thesis

Research Courses: Participation in undergraduate research through CURO will fulfill the requirement for SPIA students. Find more information on CURO courses at <http://curo.uga.edu/>.

Service:

Service-Learning Courses: Participation in service-learning through any S-suffix course will fulfill the requirement for SPIA students.